Please remember in your prayers all those members of our parish family who are sick or suffering in any way, all those in hospitals or nursing homes, and all of our shut-ins. We pray for all who have died recently. Let us not forget the victims of violence at home and abroad.

We remember the men and women serving in the armed forces as we continually pray for peace.

Faith Alive

The Magi in today's gospel were led to Jesus by a star. Who are the stars your children follow? Don't let it be the tabloid stars. Resolve in this New Year to be the guiding star in the life of your children.

Guard against online infidelity and Facebook flings. Honor your spouse by stating your status as "married" and throw out any old photos of you hugging past flames that might be misinterpreted. Make your commitment to your spouse clear and public.

Epiphany: Think of a wise thing that your child has done or something that he/she has taught you? Affirm she has taught you? Learn from each other.

To stay informed about our Catholic faith and news of our Diocese, read The Evangelist, our Albany Diocesan newspaper. To subscribe, call 584-2375.

Baptism Preparation Class

The next Baptism Preparation class for parents who wish to have their children baptized here at The Church of Saint Peter will be held Tuesday, January 31, at 7:00 p.m.

Please call the office, 584-2375, for more information.

Thank you

To the many, many people of our Church who shared their time and talent these past few weeks in every ministry to make our advent and Christmas liturgies so meaningful and beautiful.

NCYC 2011 !!!!

NCYC 2011 was an experience I will never forget. I made great friendships with the other teenagers that joined me from our parish. Being in a stadium with 23,000 other teenagers was moving itself. Just knowing that everyone was there for the same reason, believing in and worshiping one god was an unbelievable feeling. It really is hard to put into words what we all experienced on that trip. We all learned so much from amazing speakers and performers and were able to relate to them in so many ways. There were so many workshops that we were able to pick from and we attended the ones we picked mostly as a whole group. We all appreciate everyone who helped get us to Indiana to experience this amazing conference. We also couldn't thank our chaperones enough, Patty Poulette, Carol Boltzer and Father Matt. I had a great time and would love to go again in two years!!

Saratoga Heritage Apartments

5 Heritage Way, Wilton, New York
(518) 583-8000 – 580-2358

Thank you for advertising in our bulletin!

Thank you very much for providing so many wonderful gift certificates for the families served by the Domestic Violence and Rape Crisis Services of Saratoga County. Your kindness, compassion, and support through your generous holiday giving, are tremendously appreciated. I thought I'd share with you a message we received from one of our clients: "My children will be SO happy on Christmas morning—it is amazing to experience such kindness. Your generosity has brought me to tears...of joy! Thank you and Bless you in 2012."

You are a gift to us, and to them. On behalf of our agency and staff, thank you very, very much.

Stitch and Time Knitting Group

All are welcome to join this group, January 10, 6:30–8:30 pm in the Parish Center Resource Room to knit, crochet and loom together to make warm items for those in our community in need. While making mittens, hats, scarves, socks, gloves, or small lap blankets, we will have the time for fellowship and reflection with fellow parishioners. The Group meets on the second and fourth Tuesday of each month.

All skill levels and abilities are welcome!! If you've never done one of these crafts, there will be other members ready, willing and able to teach you! Come to learn, re-learn or enjoy your favorite handcraft while creating these much needed items!

Call Gail Jordan or Linda Shufelt with questions, 584-2375.

Senior Dinner

Our thanks again to the Knights of Columbus for hosting St. Peter's Senior Dinner in their Saratoga Council facility. The meal was prepared by Chef Maureen Clancy and the students of her BOCES Culinary Arts program. Thank you to the Knights for their gracious hospitality!

Domenican Retreat and Conference Center

The Domenican Retreat and Conference Center, 1945 Union Street, Niskayuna New York offers several programs that may be of interest to you. Reservations are needed for most programs.
