Please remember in your prayers all those members of our parish family who are sick or suffering in any way, all those in hospitals or nursing homes, and all of our shut-ins. We pray for all who have died recently, including. Let us not forget the victims of violence at home and abroad. We remember the men and women serving in the armed forces as we continually pray for peace.

Several donations have been made to St. Peter's Needy Association in loving memory of Elaine Dunson and Mary Pietruccia.

Family Perspective
By Bud Ozar

"Father forgive them, they know not what they do." Frequently we offend each other without being aware of it. The survival of relationships depends on our ability to forgive one another. This Holy Week imitates Jesus and forgive those who have wronged you. Stop carrying resentment in your heart.

Marriage Moments
www.SusanVogt.net

Marriage can be like Holy Week. One day it's Palm Sunday and everyone is singing your praises. But the one closest to you can betray you. All seems lost. It's not easy but faith reminds us of the forgiveness and sacrificial love, resurrection is possible. Can you believe it?

Parenting Pointers
www.SusanVogt.net

If you have more than one child, you are probably no stranger to sibling rivalry. It's dangerous for a parent to be the judge of who the culprit really was if you were not witness to an alleged offense. Stop any physical fight, separate the children, wait and watch. (Conflict resolution strategies to come later.)

Good Friday Collection for Holy Land

My Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

The annual Good Friday Collection, as it has become known, aims to promote among the Christian faithful a love for the Land of the Lord. For the Church to survive there it must rely upon a loving and nurturing solidarity on the part of each Christian, a solidarity which bears witness to faith in Him Who was born in that land, Who preached the Gospel there and Who also died and was resurrected there.

The daily news reminds us of the violence and instability plaguing the Middle East, but we rarely hear of the Christian community there, a community that struggles to remain in the land of Christ's birth, death and resurrection. You can help fellow Catholics in the cradle of Christianity through your generosity during this year's special Good Friday Collection (April 2). Thank you for supporting the works of the Catholic Community and helping to protect the Holy Places and Christian Shrines. Please be generous.

I thank you for your continued support in this effort to assist our brothers and sisters in the Holy Land. May our gracious God bless you and your parish family with abundant grace, peace, and renewal as you approach Easter 2010.

Faithfully yours in Christ, Howard J. Hubbard, Bishop of Albany
