Please remember in your prayers all those members of our parish family who are sick or suffering in any way, all those in hospitals or nursing homes, and all of our shut-ins. We pray for all who have died recently, including John Shambo. Let us not forget the victims of violence at home and abroad. We remember the men and women serving in the armed forces as we continually pray for peace.

Several additional donations have been made to St. Peter's Needy Association in loving memory of Elaine Dunson and Mary Pietruccia.

Family Perspective
By Bud Ozar

The beach breakfast in today's gospel teaches us meals are more than just eating. Meals with others are intersections of affection were, like Jesus, we "reveal" our true selves through conversation. When we skip a meal together, we skip the opportunity to grow closer.

Marriage Moments
www.SusanVogt.net

Marriage is a commitment in which we chose to forego other choices. The "lack of freedom," however, can free us to stop searching, to stop putting up a front, and to risk being our truest, best self because we are loved unconditionally.

Parenting Pointers
www.SusanVogt.net

It's natural to want to save our children from their difficulties or mistakes. Don't be too quick to rescue, however, A research study of 400 high achievers (like Churchill and Einstein) showed that three-quarters of them came from poverty or troubled childhoods. One-quarter of them had physical handicaps. Overcoming an obstacle can strengthen a child. Support your children but often it's best to let them do things themselves - the hard way.

Faith Alive!

To stay informed about our Catholic faith and news of our Diocese, read The Evangelist, our Albany Diocesan newspaper. The Evangelist offers extensive, in depth coverage. The cost is only 30 cents a week, less than a first-class postage stamp. Call 584-2375.

Third Sunday of Easter

Newly Baptized

With great joy we welcome to our parish family the following children:

Kathryn Anne and Sarah Theresa
Daughters of John and Maureen Cogan Blaum

May Kathryn and Sarah's family and this parish community continue to support them as they grow in faith.

just to let you know

A website has been set up for Emma Spaeth by her family in response to many inquiries asking how she is doing. You may go to the site and read updates, look at photos and even sign the guestbook. This will be a way for all to check on her progress. Phil and Maria said Emma loves when they read to her from the guestbook as well.
