Please remember in your prayers all those members of our parish family who are sick or suffering in any way, all those in hospitals or nursing homes, and all of our shut-ins. We pray for all who have died recently, including Charles Van Wie, husband of Antoinette. Let us not forget the victims of violence at home and abroad. We remember the men and women serving in the armed forces as we continually pray for peace.

Donations have been made to St. Peter's Needy Association (SPNA) in memory of Joseph Campilango, Margaret Neville, and Elaine Dunson.

Family Perspective
By Bud Ozar

We know parents are given the gift of the Holy Spirit. Could it be you are the Advocate mentioned in today's gospel; the Advocate who will teach and remind your children of all I told you?" Christian parents are meant to be instruments of the Spirit to their children.

Marriage Moments
www.SusanVogt.net

Praying together feels awkward to me. Praying in the morning sounds inhuman. If morning is not your strength, maybe it fits your spouse better and he/she could take the lead, gently wake you, and read the scripture of the day. Even if you're still groggy, sometimes just showing up is a form of prayer. Try it, you might like it.

Parenting Pointers

"Jesus did many other things as well. If every one of them were written down, I suppose that even the whole world would not have room for the books that would be written (Jn 21:25) Many parents keep a log of their kids' accomplishments—especially for the first child and during the first year of life. If you haven't done this for a while, jot down a few milestones for posterity this week.

Living the Catholic Social Justice Teaching

St. Joseph's Home and Shelter by Kelsey Hayner

Members of St. Peter's Youth Ministry and I went to St. Joseph's Home and Shelter in Troy, New York not too long ago. Driving there, I really didn't know what to expect. Our plan was to cook and serve a meal to the homeless people at St. Joseph's Home and Shelter. The group of us all piled into the kitchen they have there and cooked the meal. My stomach dropped when I saw this cute, little girl that was there with her mom, who was trying to provide for her daughter. The people there really enjoyed our presence and their meal that was given to them. As I said, driving there I really didn't know what to expect, but I know how I was feeling on the ride home. We didn't get paid or anything like that, but we all, I'm sure, got something far better than money and that was pride. Driving home I felt proud of myself and the others that I joined that day, for doing something that benefited others.
