Please remember in your prayers all those members of our parish family who are sick or suffering in any way, all those in hospitals or nursing homes, and all of our shut-ins. We pray for all who have died recently. Let us not forget the victims of violence at home and abroad. We remember the men and women serving in the armed forces as we continually pray for peace.

Family Perspective
By Bud Ozar

Before ascending to heaven, Jesus told us to "proclaim the gospel." The great St. Francis of Assisi added to this when he said "Preach always and sometimes, if necessary, use words." We preach by how we live. What is the message preached by your family?

Marriage Moments

Karen Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net
Resolving an argument: Strategy #4: CO-EXIST: When neither of you are willing to move from your position, it may be possible to simply agree to disagree. This way no one is wrong, but you agree to follow your own light as long as it doesn't interfere with your spouse. Next week: CREATE A NEW SOLUTION

Parenting Pointers

Karen Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net
This week as we remember Jesus ascending into heaven, perhaps you and your child could "lift up" in prayer the memory of deceased relatives who have gone to be with God. Even though we don't know where "heaven" is, children can watch a balloon or kite ascend toward the heavens—and pray.

Prayer for a Nation By Thomas Jefferson

"Almighty God, you have given us this good land for our heritage. We humbly ask you that we may always prove ourselves a people mindful of your favor and glad to do your will. Bless our land with honorable endeavor, sound learning and pure manners. Save us from pride and arrogance, violence, discord, and confusion, and from every evil way. Defend our liberties and fashion into one united people the multitudes brought here out of many nations and tongues. Endow with the Spirit of Wisdom those to whom, in your Name, we entrust the authority of government, that there may be justice and peace at home, and that through obedience to your law we may show forth your praise among the nations on earth. In time of prosperity fill our hearts with thankfulness, and in the day of trouble do not allow our trust in you to fail. We ask all of this through Jesus Christ our Lord." Amen

Memorial Day May 25, 2009

Honor those who have served our nation.
