Please remember in your prayers all those members of our parish family who are sick or suffering in any way, all those in hospitals or nursing homes, and all of our shut-ins. We pray for all who have died recently, including Gus DeGregory, Andrew J. DeGregorio, Sr. Edna Saddlemire, sister of Nellie Agosta. Let us not forget the victims of violence at home and abroad. We remember the men and women serving in the armed forces as we continually pray for peace.

Donations have been made this past week to St. Peter's Needy Association (SPNA) in memory of Joseph Campilango, Judith Mansfield, Michael Leone, Mary Pietruccia, and Alphonse Dominick

Family Perspective
By Bud Ozar

After feeding the people in today's gospel there were twelve baskets of leftovers. Leftovers are common in our homes and if we keep them too long they turn bad. "Emotional leftovers: such as resentment, jealousy and unresolved conflict in our family also become toxic when held too long. Do some spring cleaning and toss out your emotional leftovers.

Marriage Moments

Communication is not always the same as talking. Talk can be irrelevant and cheap. Being a person of one's word and following through with action makes communication true. "Let us love not in word or speech but in deed and truth." (1 John 3:18)

Parenting Pointers

Don't downplay your teen's troubles even if you think they are trivial. Teens are working on the skills they need to become functioning adults. Offer support in the form of listening. What may seem small to you may be very big to your teen. Actually this same maxim works for children of all ages.
