Please remember in your prayers all those members of our parish family who are sick or suffering in any way, all those in hospitals or nursing homes, and all of our shut-ins. We pray for all who have died recently. Let us not forget the victims of violence at home and abroad. We remember the men and women serving in the armed forces as we continually pray for peace.

Family Perspective
By Bud Ozar

In the gospel today Jesus tells his disciples "you will meet a man...follow him...he will show you." Every child needs "a man" to "follow" who gives them direction, not so much by words, but by "showing." Fathers are called to "the man", the show-man."

Marriage Moments

Karen Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net
"Let love be sincere." (Romans 12:9) Who is the most sincere person you know? Ponder this virtue today and think of one sincere, loving comment you can make to your spouse before the sun goes down.

Parenting Pointers

Karen Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net
Try a "tech free day." No TV, no computer, no cell phone, n video games... It may seem like cruel and unusual punishment but it can also be a challenge. Of course, you have to choose a day that is not tech dependent, but it can teach you and your children how to savor human relationships and how to be resourceful.

2009 Catholic Communication Campaign 'How the Good News Gets Around'

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

The Catholic Communications Campaign in partnership with our diocesan Communications Office has been the Church's voice in the media: educating, entertaining, inspiring and informing the public about Gospel values. The Catholic Communication Campaign plays an important role in our society. It merits our continued support.

This year's Catholic Communication Campaign collection has the theme "How the Good News Gets Around." The collection will be taken up in churches throughout our diocese next weekend, June 20-21, 2009. This collection is the ONLY national collection in which fifty percent of each donation will be used by our diocese for local programming and projects.

Among other projects, the Albany Diocese is aided in producing and broadcasting each week's Sunday Liturgy on "Table of the Lord." The remainder of the funds helps support the Catholic Communication Campaign's national activities that include information posted daily on the Internet, movie reviews, Catholic radio and television.

To learn more about the Catholic Campaign's national projects, please visit www.CatholiccommunicationCampaign.org. With your assistance the Catholic Communication Campaign will continue to proclaim the Good News each and every day. Thank you.

Faithfully yours in Christ, Howard J. Hubbard. Bishop of Albany

Prayer Line Ministry

St. Peter's Prayer Line Ministry began in October 1997 with eight people and eight prayer requests. It has grown to 115 people with an average of 150 requests per month. Wonderful things have happened.

You are invited to be a part of this Ministry. There are no dues, no meetings—just prayer for the needs of others. Contact Carlie Lindemann at carliefl@verizon.net or 583-3174, or look for the sign-up sheet on the table in the vestibule of Church.
