We pray for all who have died recently. Let us not forget the victims of violence at home and abroad. We remember the men and women serving in the armed forces as we continually pray for peace.

Family Perspective
By Bud Ozar

As the Father "sent his son into the world" so parents send their children into the world "so that the world might be saved." This is the missionary role of the Christian family. Your family is a school where your children develop convictions which enable them to make a difference in the world.

Marriage Moments
www.SusanVogt.net

If you had to choose between being too hot or too cold which would you prefer? What would your spouse say? Knowing these little things can help you set your thermostat or adjust to your spouse's needs. Care about your partner's comfort.

Parenting Pointers
www.SusanVogt.net

On this Father's Day, think about what you learned from your own father about life. It may have been good or it may be you learned what to avoid in your own parenting. Pass on the wisdom of past generations to your child.

National Catholic Youth Conference (NCYC)

The National Catholic Youth Conference (NCYC) is an exciting, biennial three-day experience of prayer, community, and empowerment for Catholic teenagers and their adult chaperones. The three days include general sessions and workshops addressing a wide variety of topics as well as opportunities for reconciliation, daily liturgy, and special activities, such as concerts. NCYC began in 1983 following in the footsteps of its predecessor conference, the CYO biennial national convention. In 1991, the two conferences merged into one national event. Today, NCYC draws 23,000+ youth and adults for three days of catechesis, prayer, service and recreation. It is a life-changing event.

This weekend, our youth attending NCYC in the fall, will be selling tickets to win a "Retro" themed basket of fun items. The winning ticket will be drawn following 11:00 am Mass today,. Thank you for supporting their efforts to raise funds to attend NCYC.
