Please remember in your prayers all those members of our parish family who are sick or suffering in any way, all those in hospitals or nursing homes, and all of our shut-ins. We pray for all who have died recently, including Florence Wawskiewicz, Marlene Reardon, Charles Finan, Brian Nealon, and Trisha Voigt. Let us not forget the victims of violence at home and abroad. We remember the men and women serving in the armed forces as we continually pray for peace.

Family Perspective

By Bud Ozar

The apostles in today's gospel were amazed at the power of Jesus. Children are amazed at our lack of fear of dark rooms or monsters in closets or under beds. As the apostles depended on Jesus, children depend on us to restore quiet to their lives. Getting out of bed in the middle of the night to quiet a child's fears is the stuff of holiness.

Marriage Moments

Karen Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net

Do you and your spouse have different shopping personalities? Is he utilitarian while you are a recreational shopper? Are you a bargain hunter while she shops as therapy? Instead of getting annoyed with each other, try to understand.

Parenting Pointers

Karen Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net

"Our Father, who art in heaven..." Note that we say "Our" Father not "My" Father since God is God not only to me but to all the children of the earth. Yes. Remember your own father today, but also remember those children whose father is absent, unemployed or deployed in a foreign land, abusive, or in some other way not present. Can you be like a father to someone who needs you?

To all the important men in our lives....The ones that kill spiders, reach things on the high shelves, lift up little boys and dance with little girls on top of their shoes!

St. Peter's Women's Retreat

The first St. Peter's Women's Retreat held June 5 and 6th at the Carondelet Hospitality Center in Latham was a rich, faith-filled experience for all who attended. Over the next year we will be offering reflections from the participants on their retreat experience. The first follows: "I didn't know what to expect, being that this was my first retreat. I was amazed at how quickly I became comfortable in the experience".
