Family Perspective
By Bud Ozar

Because it takes time to learn the lesson in today's gospel it is important children are given the opportunities to be "trustworthy in small matters" so they learn to be "trustworthy in large matters" and "trustworthy with what belongs to another."

Marriage Moments
www.SusanVogt.net

Happiness: Laugh together this week. Watch a funny TV program or movie, tell each other a silly joke, play a practical joke that won't backfire, go to a comedy club, or just reminisce about the crazy things you've done during your life together. Laughing heals and bonds.

Parenting Pointers
www.SusanVogt.net

Do you give weak directions to your child? "Pick up your toys please" or "No more TV right now" and then go on with whatever task you were busy about. Sometimes the child may comply but often parents don't follow through and the child learns that if they ignore the request, the parent won't do anything and they will get their way. You don't have to be mean - just firm and take the energy to enforce what you ask. Don't tell them it's time to go to bed if you're not prepared to follow through with calmly carrying them if necessary.

Sacrament of Confirmation Preparation for Adults beyond high school age

There can be many reasons why someone did not receive the Sacrament of Confirmation while in grade school or high school. We want to offer the opportunity (as we have done in the past) to those who would desire to celebrate the Sacrament at the Easter Vigil in April. The Sacrament of Confirmation completes initiation into the Church and is necessary for a person to be a godparent and a sponsor for Confirmation. If you wish to have more information or to sign up for our preparation program, please contact Fr. Ingemie at 584-2375 or email Dingemie1@nycap.rr.com.

Showcase of Homes

The Saratoga Builders Association will resume their house tours entitled "Showcase of Homes." The proceeds from these tours will again benefit Habitat for Humanity of Northern Saratoga, Warren and Washington Counties and Rebuilding Together Saratoga County.

The Church of St. Peter is a covenant supporter of Habitat and encourages your participation in this fund raising effort. Parishioners interested in volunteering as "house greeters". Please call Kathy DiSanto at 587-7836. "House Greeters" are rewarded for their work with a complimentary ticket.

Tickets are $20 per person for tours of sixteen (16) new Homes, open for inspection on September 18-19, 25-26, and October 2-3.

Catholic Colleges and Universities Collection 9/25-26

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

I appeal to you today to give generously to the Annual Diocesan Collection for The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. Catholic University is unique as the national university for the Catholic Church and the only higher education institution founded by the U.S. Bishops in 1887 and chartered by the Vatican. As such, it has a special responsibility to education future leaders for our Church and for our nation. In this sense, The Catholic University of America belongs to all of us in the Church regardless of where we live.

On Saturday and Sunday, September 25-26, 2010 the annual collection for The Catholic University of America and other Catholic higher educational needs will be taken up in our diocese. I encourage you to join me in supporting this most worthwhile educational initiative. Again, I am grateful for your continual generosity.

Faithfully yours in Christ,
Howard J. Hubbard, Bishop of Albany
