Please remember in your prayers all those members of our parish family who are sick or suffering in any way, all those in hospitals or nursing homes, and all of our shut-ins. We pray for all who have died recently, including Marie Jeffers, Betty Macmonagal, and Joseph Cherniske. Let us not forget the victims of violence at home and abroad.

We remember the men and women serving in the armed forces as we continually pray for peace.

Faith Alive

This Christmas remember your task as a parent is the same as Mary's: We must not let our doubts, fears and unfulfilled expectations get in the way of our loving ACEPTANCE of our children.

On December 26, the second day of Christmas, look at your true love, an appreciate the gift you are to each other. Hopefully, the frenzy of Christmas Day has waned and you can rest in each other's company for a moment. It's a better gift than two turtle doves.

As the year ends, pull out your 2011 calendar and reminisce with your children about joys and sadnesses that brought brought.

NCYC 2011 !!!!

NCYC was an experience for me — from arriving in Indianapolis. It seemed everyone who we were and cheered us on. That really got to me and I knew I was going to have a great time. I liked the opening act on Friday, the best, (the comedian talking about horror movies) because he taught the bible and God's meaning in very relatable terms...and he was extremely funny. The whole trip was amazing and I really want to go again I two years, maybe explore a little more but otherwise I loved it. The ending mass really stood out and it was fun singing with a crowd of over 25,000. I hated leaving on Sunday and I can't wait to go back.
